AMY BEDNARSKI - May 11, 2020 at 12:39 AM

“ I have so many great memories of Darryl. He was a strong, loving, and loving person. I stayed with Darryl and Amy during the summer in my college years. I remember eating 2nd dinner so late at 10:30 every night, and then falling asleep on the couch. I remember installing the awning on the back porch together, and building the retaining wall together. Those were great times, just the two of us working hard together. I remember the nights that we sat around the fire with friends. Mostly I will cherish our conversations and his advice about life and faith.

“ When I first joined the choir, you and Amy made me feel welcomed and that grew into a friendship that I cherish! God knew His plan to take you when he sent me to your store that Oct. afternoon so that I wouldn't miss my chance to talk with you and see that sweet smile! I'll miss you and look forward to dancing with you in heaven!

“ Mr. D! I didn't have a chance to say goodbye. I'll remember all the times I left your home or your office. You always had a huge hug for me, a kiss, and a blessing. The years I spent working with you and Amy were good years. English muffins in the morning. Dave Letterman at night. You were not only a fine example of a good, Christian man, but a fine example of a human being. You cared for others, not just physically, but spiritually. Your smile could melt the Artic. I'll miss you, Big D, but can't wait to see the big set of wings God has given you. Love you forever! <3 Marie Sottosanti Bir

“ I will miss my friend who made me feel welcome and loved - you showed me the sweet love of Jesus in the kindest ways - drive those clouds right, slide down a rainbow right into the arms of Jesus. He is a mighty king who calls you friend

“ There are so many great memories of Darryl that I have. He has been there for me in more ways then I will ever know. When I was 16 and found out I was pregnant, Darryl hugged me, offered me love, guidance, and never once passed judgment. He helped me get a car. He has been there through my lowest of lows. Last year, when my family experienced our first loss, he and Amy were there with us. I could go on about many more beautiful memories. He will be surely missed by so many. Thank you Darryl, for being a light in our lives.

Memories:

Driving for the first time, Darryl pulled his Dodge minivan over to the side of the road on W. Ridgewood Drive and said, "Let's see you drive" ..

1000 Mile trek up from Florida on my Motorcycle during a rain storm. I pulled into the FLP parking lot near Southland shopping center having been soaked by rain and a rock hit my blue raincoat and tore it, the wind had taken care of the rest of the sleeve, causing my entire face and neck to be a nice shade of blue. Darryl's reaction was priceless, he laughed of course. Years later I sat across a table from him and he had begun to remember the details of that day and chuckle.

Financial crisis. As a young man, I had obtained over a dozen credit cards from every company that would allow me to have one, and maxed them out, causing a major unstable financial situation. Darryl jumped into action and helped me gain financial freedom. This was no easy task, and I forever owe him and Amy for the "parenting" they so graciously provided.

First vehicle. Darryl was the type of leader in the church that took rough rocks and turned them into diamonds. He saw my need for driving, having been utilizing the RTA Bus system for the previous few years while attending PHBC. Darryl negotiated a price for a 1987 Toyota Camry from our churches senior pastor (The Late) Paul Thompson. He paid for it out of his own pocket and worked out a payment plan with me. This meant the world to me and once again, a moment that makes me cry because it was who Darryl was.

As a result of these previously mentioned memories and soooooo many more, I thought of ways to make Darryl proud at every turn. Not that I would press upon Darryl that I did this and did that, but that I had lived a life that was honorable and kind, humble, and resembled the very same things that Darryl demonstrated to me. I enlisted into the Army, married an amazing woman, had a son. I recently graduated from KSU and now im pursuing a career that would make him proud. I really pray that I made him proud. I really try my hardest to live a life that he would have been proud to witness.

My only regret? :(

I did not spend time with him as of late. I took for granted my time remaining and assumed I had 20 more years with him. for that, I will forever spend my remaining days honoring God and Darryl's memory.

My heart is truly shattered right now. I grieve with so many!

Out of pure selfishness, I wish Darryl was still with us. I miss him so much.

“ Dearest Amy,

I so wish I could wrap my arms around you and cry with you. But being so far away I'm asking the great Comforter to do this for me. I praise God for the privilege of having you and Darryl as such good friends for these many years. I will be praying for you.

Love,
